TRUTH

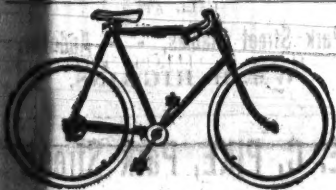

"The real searcher after truth will not receive the old because it is old, or reject the new because it is new. He will not believe men because they are dead, or contradict them because they are alive." He will investigate for himself. That is precisely what we want the people of Andover to do—come and investigate the truth of our statements in print. We doubt not that the intelligent reader of Andover papers is often amused, if not disgusted, at the wild statements made by advertisers.

Some men who call themselves merchants seem to think their first step toward success is to murder the truth. The smallest dealer in his line will often advertise himself as the largest liar, simply by saying he has the largest stock in town. He gets so intoxicated with his own mercantile importance that he forgets that the people who read, as a rule, have common sense, and he insults their intelligence by asking them to believe such statements.

The merchant who thinks he increases his popularity by "putting on the gloves" with "the truth," takes great chances of being mistaken, and his creditors not infrequently take 50c on the dollar, more or less. He wonders what is the matter, goes into bankruptcy, and finally gets into politics or a similar vocation—if there is anywhere the truth is a stranger.

YOUNG MAN—When you go into business always take with you a silent partner. Do not take advantage of that partner's silence. Take his counsel into every transaction. Fill yourself plum full of his inspiring presence and deal it out freely. He is your best friend and most valuable partner in business, and his name is.....

Any who can carry a second part or who have alto voices are particularly invited.

Some time ago the report was circulated that Albert Kane, a former employee of the Tyer Rubber Co., had been killed by a locomotive at Wilmington. Thorough investigation shows that no body has been killed at Wilmington for many months, and that no such man as Kane lived at the Boston address given. When you see a person smile you can't help noticing the teeth. If they are perfectly clean and white, or if their defects have been remedied by perfect gold filling, your opinion of their owner rises several degrees. Now how about your own teeth? Are they teeth that you are proud of? Teeth that other people would admire? Why not? They can be attractive if you employ the right dentist. We have 30 years of experience.

Free Mail Delivery.

Heavy mails that taxed the carriers beyond their capacity, have necessitated the shortening of the routes of the mail delivery.

If there is any class of citizens in Andover who need a mail delivery system, it is the people who live on the outskirts of the town. A half dozen boxes within a stone's throw of the post-office may gather a good many letters, but those who deposit them could just as well go the few steps further and use the post office as of old.

We think the shutting off of the outer districts is a mistaken idea of what the free delivery system was designed to do for such towns as Andover. It was designed to make suburban residences more attractive by bringing the outskirts nearer to the conveniences of the centre, rather than to still further separate the town and the country by giving the town more accommodations, that the country can not have.

Editorial Cinders.

Good for the florists. They have begun what may come to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year. Everybody who loves flowers, and is there anybody who does not?, must feel an interest another year and with a hundred private exhibits, of one or more plants, added to the splendid exhibition that the florists themselves can provide, the first year's success can be increased manifold.

Properly directed, the florists' and gardeners' annual show may have a great deal to do in the future in making a more beautiful Andover.

Many Andover citizens were in the audience that gathered in the Lawrence Opera House, to listen to Dr. Bowker's opening travel talk, last Wednesday evening. It has been several years since Dr. Bowker spoke in Andover and it was a delight to once more listen to his vivid portrayal of the life and scenes of that wonderful far away nation, the Transvaal. Few men have travelled more and seen as much of the world's interesting features as has Dr. Bowker, and he has the rare gift of being able to share his travels with his audience, through beautiful pictures and entertaining talk.

Andover people would welcome a course of lectures in their own hall before the winter closes.

The Andover-Exeter foot-ball game may be somewhat dwarfed in footballdom at large, by the greater Harvard-Yale contest of to-morrow, but in Andover everything centres around the battle of to-day. As we go to press, the boys are in the midst of the contest at Exeter and thousands of loyal adherents to both sides are urging on to victory. The interest seems now to be upon a healthful foundation, and the two great American academies make their friends all over the country, glad that the friendly rivalry is once more renewed. May the team that represents the very highest development of the pure, genuine, honest school-boy athlete, always win.

For Pity's Sake.

There is yet one week's sale for the benefit of the Indian Ridge fund, for the delightful little book by Mrs. Carter. The local demand has already been very flattering, but a hundred copies should be disposed of the coming week. It is for sale at the Bookstore and at Chase's.

Many people when a little constipated, make the mistake of using salines or other drastic purgatives. All that is needed is a mild dose of Ayer's Pills to restore the regular movement of the bowels, and nature will do the rest. They keep the system in perfect order.
Hood Pills necessary to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, biliousness, etc.

EXETER VERSUS ANDOVER.

Sketch of the Men who Played in To-day's Match Game at Exeter.

The annual foot-ball contest between the rival academies, Phillips Exeter and Phillips Andover, is being played this afternoon at Exeter. The game has not ended when the Townsman went to press, but by the time these words reach the eyes of the greater number of TOWNSMAN readers, the result will be known and the town will be in the midst of either a joyous celebration or a gloomy silence according as Andover wins or loses the game. Whatever the result, the boys in blue are sure to merit praise for the showing they make against their old-time rivals. There is not a man on the team who did not play the game of his life, being bound to carry the blue banners on to victory.

Nearly a thousand enthusiasts from this town went to Exeter to witness the contest, the special train which left at 12.30 being well filled.

The men who represented Exeter and Andover follow:

Exeter.
Capt. Higley, who was at one time a student at Andover, is one of the quickest players on the Exeter eleven. He is a good tackler and rushes the ball well. He plays right guard.

Jones and Hogan, right and left tackle respectively, are both strong in defense, and both tackle low and well. Jones weighs 165 pounds and is one of the strongest men in school. Hogan, who weighs 171 pounds, makes a better hole for the backs.

E. H. Greene at centre has played a steady game all the season. He is a native of Cambridge, 18 years of age, and before coming to Exeter played centre for Goddard Academy at Barre, Vt. He is the heaviest man on the team, weighing 190 pounds.

Lynd, at full-back, is a good kicker and a strong line-backer.

Zimmerman of last year's team, plays left guard. He weighs 181 pounds, but is quick and aggressive.

Miller, who plays left half back, is one of the fiercest line-backers in school.

Sears and Gordinier have developed into excellent players. They both understand their positions, are quick to get down the field, and both are hard tacklers.

Baldwin, at quarter-back, is the strongest man in the school. He is 19 years old and weighs 144 pounds. He has never played foot-ball until last year.

Syphax, right half, hits the line hard and seldom fails to make a gain. He played against Andover last year.

Directors of Andover Guild Meet.

The regular meeting of the Directors of the Andover Guild was held on Tuesday evening, Mr. Palmer in the chair. Eight directors present. After the routine business had been disposed of, full discussion followed in regard to the work and plans of the Ways and Means, Sewing School, Sloyd and Girls' Club committees. It was voted to grant the use of a room in the Guild House to the morning class in physical culture, in view of the fact that the director of this class has generously offered to conduct two free classes for young women and girls in the afternoon and evening. The committee on Sloyd were empowered to continue the class through another term. If this course commended itself to their judgment. The report of the Case committee received due commendation, and appropriations were made for this branch of the work. The resignation of Mrs. Jonas Spaulding from the Board of Directors was most respectfully accepted. A committee was appointed to arrange a program for the Annual Meeting. Adjourned.

Funeral of Caleb T. Briggs.

Barker, tenor; Dr. George W. Dow, bass. The honorary bearers were Frank A. Low, nephew of the deceased, cashier of the Washington National Bank of Boston; Rev. N. Chamberlain, the family physician; and James H. Eaton, a neighbor and friend of deceased.

Mrs. Downs' Lecture.

The second entertainment in the series, announced by the A. V. I. S., transpired on Tuesday evening. It was a lecture by Mrs. Annie Sawyer Downs upon "Childhood in Art." But it seemed like a wonderful fairy story, as we watched the children emerging from marble and canvas, and joining the happy throng, which in procession was more than an hour in passing. They came from Greece and Rome, from Italy and Spain, from England and from France. We noticed among them the beautiful young Augustus, the youthful Marcus Aurelius, some of the world's greatest and noblest Correggio's roughish Amorini, Rubens' corns, dressed for the occasion, the poor princes in the tower, and Van Dyck's small Charles II and James II, whom England might well have excused from growing older. The beautiful sisters, in the Litchfield Cathedral, slept on, undisturbed by the troops of children passing by. We watched Titian's little Mary, in her blue gown, fearfully going up the stairs to the priests who awaited her at the top.

It was sweet to see the little Jesus and his cousin, at play, or in his simple white frock, walking between his father and mother, each holding one small hand as Murillo painted the group, or later in the Temple among the doctors undisturbed. But most appealing are the pictures of the divine child in his mother's arms. Who can resist the impulse to worship the wonderful babe whom the Sistine Mother holds! The modern children who brought up the rear of the procession, seemed through him, to be endowed with greater nobility and sweetness and worth.

Mrs. Downs is in such hearty sympathy with children and is so thoroughly acquainted with Childhood in Art, that her lecture gives rare pleasure and brings much profit to the hearer.

We are indebted to the A. V. I. S., not only for beautifying our village, but for its efforts to enrich our minds and cultivate our taste.

Obituary.

MISS ALICE ROGERS.

Miss Alice Rogers, one of the best known and most respected women of Andover, died suddenly at her home on Main Street, Sunday night, Nov. 11, 1897, at the age of 60 years. She had been ill for some time. She was a member of the Methodist Church and was a devoted wife and mother. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Rogers, and her children, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. R. Hill, who resided with her.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at her late residence, by Rev. Frank R. Shipman. Hymns were sung by a quartette. Thursday morning the remains were taken to Newburyport for interment.

JOSEPH T. ROBINSON.

Joseph T. Robinson died at his home, 40 Union Street, Frye Village, Tuesday night, aged 61 years, 1 month, and 21 days. He leaves a wife, four daughters and four sons. The funeral was held this morning from St. Augustine's Church, Fr. Field, celebrant; Fr. Murphy, deacon; Fr. Lynch, sub-deacon. Burial took place in the Catholic Cemetery.

Mr. Robinson was born in Bolton, Eng. He came to Andover 10 years ago and was to work for the Smith & Dove Manufacturing Company. When the Civil War broke out he enlisted in the navy. He served on the battleship Minnesota. He resumed his work at the mill after his return home.

MRS. R. H. WHITE.

Mrs. R. H. White, nee Tucker, sister of William H. Tucker of this town, died recently at Gibraltar where she had gone in search of health. As a young lady she was well known in Andover. She leaves three sisters, Mrs. S. H. Hansen, Mrs. James Middleton, and Mrs. Dr. Scott.

JOHN MAGEE.

In the death of John Magee, Andover loses the loss of another son, who has honored her in the business world. Born in St. John, N.B., Dec. 24, 1831, he came to Andover with his parents before a year had passed. Educated in Andover schools, he entered into active business in her manufactures, soon being advanced to a position of trust. Later he apprenticed himself to the tinmith and plumbing trade, thus learning the lessons which culminated in the inventions which caused the founding of the Magee Furnace Co. Throughout these changes he never forgot that he was an Andover boy. Business honor and integrity were his watchwords. During his long illness nothing delighted him more than to dwell on the town's natural beauties and an Andover face would bring not only pleasure, but charming reminiscences. He died at Beverly, Nov. 5, 1897, leaving a widow, two sons, John L. and Frank A., and a daughter to reverence his memory.

EX-SENATOR M. F. DIXON.

Mr. Dixon was born in Westbury, August 23, 1747, studied in the public schools there and fitted for college at Phillips Andover Academy. He was graduated from Brown University in the class of '69.

SEASON'S CRICKET RECORDS.

Doings of the Andover Cricket Club During the Past Summer.

We present to-day the record of the Andover Cricket Club for the season of 1897. On the whole, the work of the members has been exceedingly satisfactory and the season's playing has improved in many respects. Of the twenty games played, ten have been won and a like number lost. Of the latter, four at least might have been turned into victories with a little care, three being lost by the narrow margin of 4, 8 and 3 runs. Andover's best victories have been secured over the Merrimacs, Lawrence's, Boston's and East Boston's. The Lowell's and Lynn Wanderers were the only teams to win both their games from the local players. Andover won both games from the Methuens and Billerics.

BATTING.

The fight for first place in the batting list has been a very close one between A. B. Saunders and W. Haddon, the former winning by a fraction of a run. On the season's work, however, Haddon has shown the most consistent form. Some of his best scores are: 90 (not out), 21, 20, 19, 15, 13, 12. Saunders' best performances were 53, 30, 21, 20, 17, 14. Both have materially improved their averages over last year. Pearson, who led the list last season with an average of 20.57, is third with 9.50. Haddon is fourth with 8.47. His best scores are 32, 30, 16, 10, 10, 15. Very singularly the captain has been dismissed a fewer than five times by hitting his wicket, doing it twice in one game. Rhodes and McDermott have improved their batting over last year. The batting, however, is still weak and will not improve until there is more regular practice.

BOWLING.

Some of the most brilliant bowling ever done by any member of the local team has been performed by Capt. Bruce this season, many of them bordering on the phenomenal. He easily leads the list for a second year with the splendid average of 3.33 runs per wicket. A few of his best performances are 6 for 3 runs, 7 for 9 runs, 5 for 9 runs, 7 for 18 runs, 6 for 13 runs, 5 for 14 runs. John Angus, who has been tried successfully as a change bowler, has come off well on several occasions and occupies second place with an average of 4.75. Next to Bruce's fine work Bottomley's also shines. This is his first season with the local team and he has been a great help in the bowling. His best records with the ball are 6 for 5 runs, 5 for 5 runs, 4 for 17 runs, 4 for 9 runs, 4 for 16 runs. Saunders and Pearson have not done considerable bowling but have fallen away greatly when compared with their work last season.

James Connell died at his home last Friday evening about 8:30 o'clock. The deceased was 72 years old and had been sick at times for about a year being confined to his bed for the last twelve weeks. He was one of the old residents having lived in the town about 35 years. He was a farmer and led a quiet and retiring life. He left three daughters and one son to mourn his loss, his wife having died about 11 years ago. The funeral, which was conducted by Rev. Fredric Palmer of Andover, was held at his home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Spring Grove Cemetery.

An appreciative audience attended the M. E. Church Sabbath evening to listen to the second of the series of sermons by Rev. C. LeVerne Roberts, subject "The Physician's Duty." The speaker emphasized the need of a physician when the physical body is stricken with disease, portraying the slow process of recovery to health and the possibility that death might triumph over medical skill and sever the nearest and dearest of earthly ties. To those who are spiritually sick, whose malady is sin, he sought to inspire a desire in their hearts to apply to the Great Physician of the soul, whose curative powers are instantaneous and sure, whose infinite love and compassion embraces also the precious gift of Eternal Life.

Thomas Gee died very suddenly at his home on Chester Street, last Monday morning at 3 o'clock at the age of 73 years. The deceased was about his work as usual Saturday, and was taken ill in the evening, and although medical aid was summoned he continued to grow worse until he finally expired. Mr. Gee had lived in the Vale about 18 years. He was a member of the Congregational Church where he was a very regular attendant. He was a man of unquestionable honesty and a sturdy and upright character made him welcome wherever he went. Besides a wife he leaves two brothers and one sister to mourn his loss. The funeral took place from the house Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, and was conducted by the Rev. Arthur L. Golder. Interment in Spring Grove Cemetery.

There will be a Union Temperance meeting in Bradlee Hall next Sunday evening, Nov. 14, at 7 o'clock. Addresses will be given by Wm. Shaw, and Rev. John S. Colby. Music will be furnished by a male quartette. The public is very cordially invited to attend.

How to Cure Bilious Colic.

I suffered for weeks with colic and pains in my stomach caused by biliousness and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people. Mrs. F. Butler, Fairhaven, Conn. Persons who are subject to bilious colic can ward off the attack by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms appear. Sold by Arthur Bliss, Andover, Mass., C. E. Shattuck, M. To Supreme Court.

An important case was heard before Judge Dunbar in the superior court in this city Friday and will go to the supreme court of the state for a final decision.

The plaintiff in the case is Albert Hurlbert of Boxford, who sues the town of Danvers for his daughter's attendance at the high school of that town since 1894. The action was brought under chapter 436 of the Acts of 1894, which provides that any town in which there is not maintained a high school or a school of corresponding grade shall furnish a high school education in some adjoining town. The defense claimed that the Barker Free school, which was admitted to be a school of corresponding grade, complied with the law. The plaintiff's contention was that as the Barker school was in no way under the control of the town, although the studies might be of equal grade to those taught in high schools, it was not a school complying with the law in this chapter.

The facts in the case were agreed upon, and the matter came before Judge Dunbar for a decision upon the law. He held that the Barker school did not comply with the law, that towns which did not maintain a high school must pay the tuition of children in high schools of adjoining towns and that independent schools or academies did not take the place of high schools. The plaintiff was awarded the sum asked for, and the defendant appealed. E. B. Fuller of Haverhill for the plaintiff, and Moody & Pearl, also of Haverhill, for the defendant.

Sharp Criticism.

Rev. Fr. O'Reilly preached the sermon at the 10.30 mass at St. Mary's church Sunday morning and he devoted his attention to politics. His discourse was a denunciation of the identification of the name Catholic with politics and he criticised sharply scenes attending Saturday night's elections.

After explaining the reference of Christ to the distinctive duties of civil and religious life in the story of the coin of tribute, Fr. O'Reilly said he wished to utter a solemn protest against the manner in which the name Catholic is identified with politics in Lawrence.

"It is not charged directly said Fr. O'Reilly, 'that the Catholic church in the city formally places a ticket or candidates in the political field but men aspire to office and put others forward for office who have Catholic names and are of Catholic antecedents and in consequence thereof expect Catholics to vote them; men who are frequently a disgrace to the Catholic name. They are never seen inside the walls of a Catholic church. Their lives are almost publicly immoral and a reproach to decency and honesty.'

Fr. O'Reilly ascribed as prevalent doctrine in the local municipal school of politics, that dishonesty and deceit, spoils grabbing and moral corruption, generally are all right in politics, though perhaps to be condemned in private or business life.

He denounced the scenes of Saturday evening's caucuses, with their blasphemous and profanity as likely to drive decent people from exercising their rights as citizens, and closed with an appeal to all Catholics to cultivate an spirit of love and reverence for their church as a teacher of religion and sound morals that will prevent dragging its fair name into the mire.

"We want no Catholic party," he said. "We want no association of the name Catholic with politics unless at times our rights as Catholics, the moral rights of the people at large, require a champion. Then Catholics should unite and lead the defence. The only place for Catholics as such in the current of every day politics is to maintain a strict honesty in the discharge of their duties when elected to office and see that no man shall claim their suffrage who is not worthy of it."

Schoolmasters' Club.

The schoolmasters' club met at the residence of Principal J. D. Horne, 85 East Haverhill street, Tuesday. All the members were present, with the exception of Mr. Nutter, and several guests, the party including: Vice chairman Breen and Dr. F. W. Kennedy of the school committee, Dr. M. Lamorey of Haverhill, E. S. Riley, C. M. Lamorey, B. M. Sheridan, M. T. O'Brien, F. W. Chase, Supt. J. E. Burke, W. P. Brown, A. W. Scribner, A. L. Eulkinson, H. L. Bellia, and others.

Mr. Horne read an able paper on "Consciousness and attention." After its points had been discussed a collation was served.

A Double Christening.

An event of unique interest took place on Sunday afternoon last, when the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Rother were christened, according to the rites of the German Presbyterian church. The ceremony took place at the family residence, 73 Woodland street, Rev. George Muller officiating. The very young ladies received the names of Lily-Mabel and Rose-Grace, their godfathers being Messrs. Jacob Doer and Theodore Schubert, while the godmothers were Mrs. Pauline Matthes, Mrs. Barbara Tempold and Mrs. Henrietta Draushke.

"The worst cold I ever had in my life was cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes W. H. Norton, of Sutton Creek, Cal. "This cold left me with a cough and I was expecting that all the time. The remedy cured me, and I want all my friends when troubled with a cough or cold to use it, for it will do them good." Sold by Arthur Bliss, Andover, Mass., C. H. Shattuck, M. Dog Killed Hens.

A civil case was heard in police court Tuesday, after the criminal session. The case is an action of tort brought by Joseph Dunn against James A. McCormick.

Dunn, who lives on the Haverhill road near Beach's soap factory, keeps a large number of hens. Sunday morning, June 20, he claims that a dog owned by McCormick entered his premises and killed nine of them and injured three others.

The defense is a general denial. Joseph Donovan represented the plaintiff and Frederick N. Chandler the defendant. Decision was reserved.

Knights of the Golden Eagle.

Great interest was manifested at a preliminary meeting held Tuesday, for the purpose of mutual consultation, by the promoters of the order of the Knights of the Golden Eagle, which bids fair to have a promising future. A good number responded to the personal and mailed invitations, and all took great interest in listening to Wm. H. Wilson, P. C. late of Passaic, N. J., in his talks on the objects and benefits of the order.

It is worthy of note that the work is carried on in thirty three states, with a membership of seventy-seven thousand, and the members of the Haverhill and Boston castles are offering all the assistance necessary to bring about the forming of a castle in Lawrence.

Few people have the courage to buy a cheap piano after carefully examining a really fine one. A pretty casing is often designed to sell a poor musical instrument. These well known makes combine beauty outside and worth within. Among the first-class ones these three are the most popular—not low priced and inferior, but cheap for their superior quality. These pianos can be purchased from $300 to $400, according to size and case—quality just the same. We will rent you one of these famous instruments for three months delivered right in your home for $15. Medium grade pianos for $12. Cheap pianos for $10. If you decide the piano is all we claim for it and decide to purchase, the rent will be allowed as payment on your instrument.

His Lip Gone.

M. M. Nicholson, who lives at the corner of Curran and Anderson Sts., Atlanta, Ga., had a cancer for years. It first appeared on his lip and resembled a fever blister, but spread rapidly and soon began to destroy the flesh. His father and uncle had died from Cancer, and he sought the best medical aid in different cities, but it seemed impossible to check the disease. Several operations were performed but the cancer always returned. This continued for years until the partition in his nose and his entire upper lip were eaten away. All treatment having proved futile, he looked upon death as the only relief.

"Some one recommended S.S.S.," he says, "and a few bottles afforded me some relief; I continued it, and it was not long before the progress of the disease seemed checked. I persevered in its use, and remarkable as it may seem, I am completely cured, and feel like I have new life. S.S.S. is the most remarkable remedy in the world, and everyone will agree that the cure was a wonderful one."

A Real Blood Remedy.

Cancer is in the blood and it is folly to expect an operation to cure it. S.S.S. (guaranteed purely vegetable) is a real remedy for every disease of the blood.

GOLD HUNTERS FROM LYNN.

LYNN, Nov. 10.—The party of gold explorers that is to leave this city for the Klondike regions did not make its departure last evening as was intended.
Today, however, it is expected that everything will be in shape to permit of their leaving. The schooner Abbie M. Deering, which is to convey the party to the gold fields, will be towed to Deep Hole, near Bass Point, Nahant, by the tug Alice and Louise, Captain Thompson, and at Bass Point the crew will be taken aboard. The crew comprises the following: Com. J. Austin Clough, Daniel McFadden, Adolbert J. Holt, Michael
Donnelly, Frank D. Corson, Joseph Delage, Howard M. Tweed, Lynn; Burpee Campbell, Louis Corson, J. B. St.
Pierre, Salem; Jas. Winchester, Beverly;
Edw. Ritter, New York; L. A. House,
Norfolk, Vt.; E. B. Haines, Freeport, N.
S., and George Callif, Chelsea. The original plans of the party were to sail to Seattle and thence into British domain, but these plans have been altered.
Instead the party will clear from a port
in Nova Scotia yet to be decided upon,
this being done in order to evade the payment of duties that would be imposed if the clearing was to be made from an American instead of a British port.

WANT THEIR BACK PAY.

HAVERHILL, Nov. 10.—At the next session of congress a claim will be made by the veterans of the 4th regiment of heavy artillery, Massachusetts volunteers, for back pay amounting to $33.66 per man. The amount is pay for the third quarter and for the period after the third quarter to the time of discharge of the men from the regiment.
The regiment was recruited for service in August, 1864, and immediately went to the front. William S. King of Roxbury was colonel. Several of the companies were recruited from Haverhill and vicinity. Most of the men were enlisted for one year, or until the close of the war, but some of them had a three years' commission.
The regiment contained 1852
men and was one of the largest regiments from the state. June 17, 1865, the 4th regiment was mustered out of service in Virginia. More than a month later each man received his discharge papers at Readville, Mass. There is also a claim against the state of Massachusetts, which will be pressed. The late Gen. Cogswell was interested in the matter, and Congressman Moody
will take up the work.

HAVERHILL MAN MISSING.

HAVERHILL, Nov. 9.—The police are looking for Charles Robinson, an old man who is missing from his home in Sargent court. He is a carpenter, but for a long time has been out of work.
Last Saturday afternoon he left home,
saying he intended to drown himself.
He has not been seen since. He took a revolver with him, and it is thought that he wandered out into the country and killed himself. A number of persons on Sargent square say they saw him Saturday afternoon going in the direction of Hilldale avenue, but his son, John Robinson, who has been up the road in search of his father, has failed to find him. Those who saw him noticed that he appeared to be very weak, hardly able to drag along. Yesterday the police were asked to look up the case.

A. O. H. BAZAR AT HAVERHILL.

HAVERHILL, Nov. 9.—A bazar was opened last evening in St. Jean de Baptiste hall most auspiciously, and will continue one week. It is being conducted by the two local divisions of the
A. O. H. Previous to the opening a street parade was held, in which the local Catholic societies and the A. O. H.
divisions from Lawrence, Amesbury,
South Groveland and Newburyport participated. Thomas Kelley acted as chief marshal and was assisted by a corps of mounted aids. The route of the parade was through the business section and after being reviewed at Sargent square was dismissed.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

NEWBURYPORT, Nov. 9.—Mrs. Nellie
A. McGann died suddenly last evening at her home on Federal street. Medical Examiner Hurd gives the cause of death
as chronic nourishment; producing heart failure. She was 45 years old and leaves two children.

Taken Back to Maine.

John Averill, John Sears, John Driscoll, and Frank LeClair, wanted in Maine on the charge of breaking and entering, were taken to that state Monday afternoon. State Detective Odlin and Capt. Scannell of Lewiston, went to Boston with papers which they wished Gov. Wolcott to honor, that they might take their prisoners
back to Maine.

The attorney general's department,
decided that the papers were not sufficient and that several important and necessary affidavits did not accompany them. The affidavit to the effect that the men were fugitives from the justice of Maine was not sent on. The governor, therefore, on the advice of the law department, refused to honor the papers.

This is not the first time there has been trouble here with Maine extraditition papers.
The officers came to this city and talked with the alleged offenders at the jail. The quartet finally decided to go without the papers being issued.
The four will be arraigned in Lewiston.

Taken to the Hospital.

At the instigation of the milk inspector, Fred Jagger, the North Andover
milk dealer, was arrested Tuesday
on Oak street, charged with selling adulterated milk.

Mr. Jagger's milk is said to be below the standard and he will endeavor to explain why it is so in police court tomorrow morning.

Jagger was subsequently released on bail and while waiting for Janitor Sykes to get the money which had been taken from him when arrested he suddenly fell from a chair on to the floor. He was unconscious when the janitor reached his side and Officer
Kimball was dispatched for a doctor.
Dr. Howe was found and after working over Jagger for a time the suffering
man partially regained consciousness.
It was clearly apparent that he was afflicted with heart trouble, for in his movements, while unconscious, he would put his hands over his heart.
Upon the doctor's advice Jagger was conveyed to the general hospital.

KILLED BY A WAVE.

GLOUCESTER, Nov. 8.—Schooner Par-
this arrived yesterday from the Grand Banks. She reports an extraordinary rough experience on the banks during the severe northwest gale of Oct. 17 and 18. On Oct. 17, while Simon Moulton
and George Doucette were looking adory to the deck, a huge wave broke aboard and slammed them to the deck.
Doucette was washed overboard, but was rescued. Moulton was found under a dory. He was severely injured internally and prophesied he would die, which he did five days after. He left a wife and five little children at Eel Brook, N. S.

LYNN'S LIBRARY.

LYNN, Nov. 8.—A committee of the public library trustees for the erection of the Shute memorial library have selected plans offered by G. A. Moore of Boston. An estimate places the cost of erection at $175,000. The committee will report to the trustees this evening when vigorous opposition to the report is expected, as the sub-committee declined to call in experts in selecting the plans, and because the construction figures of another Boston builder
on the plans were but $155,000.

DIED OF BRAIN TROUBLE.

GLOUCESTER, Nov. 8.—Charles Ellis
Grover, Jr., son of Capt. and Mrs.
Charles E. Grover, died Saturday evening of brain trouble. He was in his 45th year. He had a wide circle of friends and was of a modest and retiring disposition and well liked by his associates.
He was a violinist of some skill. He was engaged for some years in the stationer's business on Main street and was a member of the Business Men's association and other organizations.

ASSAULTED HIS WIFE.

LYNN, Nov. 9.—Hamilton Wyman of West Lynn was arrested Sunday evening by Patrolman Noyes on the charge of assaulting his wife Elsie. When Wyman was arrested a loaded revolver was found in his pocket. Mrs. Wyman stated in the police court yesterday morning that he had used her roughly and that there were times when she was afraid of him. She had seen the revolver in his possession many times,
but said he had never threatened to shoot her. Wyman was fined $20 and ordered to furnish sureties in $100 to keep the peace for six months.

DON'T WANT TO BE MAYOR.

NEWBURYPORT, Nov. 9.—Hon. A. C.
Titcomb, who has been prominently
mentioned as a candidate for mayor, has decided not to allow his name to be used. He made this announcement to a delegation of business men who waited on him, a contemplated trip to the Pacific coast and pressing business being his principal reasons for declining
the honor.

ONE OF THE CREW DIED AT SEA.

GLOUCESTER, Nov. 10.—The schooner Parthis, Capt. Jose Morton, arrived from the Grand banks yesterday with her flag at half mast for the death of Simon Moulton, one of the crew, who died from injuries received during the terrible gale of Oct. 18. Moulton was a native of Abraham Brook, N. S., 35 years old, and leaves a widow and five children.

DIPHTHERIA IN SALEM.

SALEM, Nov. 10.—A child died from diphtheria on Lemon street yesterday afternoon. The case was not reported until the child had been ill for some days. There are no new cases. In Peabody, it is understood, the disease is on the increase. Two new cases are known to have been reported within the last 24 hours. The board of health refuses to give out any information whatever.

Wednesday evening Gustave Yunggebauer of Marblehead Street met with quite a painful although not serious injury. While driving in Haverhill, near the Boston & Maine station, a team, said to belong to a New York pie firm, collided with that of Yunggebauer, upsetting the latter and throwing him to the ground. To the regret of a wide acquaintance and the sorrow of relatives, the announcement of the death of Mrs. Manasse (Noonan) Casey, wife of Maurice J. Casey of Stevens Street, was received Monday afternoon. Death was due to Bright's disease, which had been progressing gradually but surely for several months, the patient enduring the affliction with exemplary resignation. A few days since a change for the worse was noticed, and the mother sorrowfully made preparation as if to enter upon the long journey. She passed away at 2:15 o'clock, comforted by the thought that the ministering hands of her children were soothing her last hours. Mrs. Casey was a native of Ireland, but for over a quarter of a century her life has been spent in Lawrence and this town. The children of the family are, Mrs. D. F. and William of Colorado, P. J. Casey, Francis and Maurice Casey; the Misses Katherine, Julia, Nora, Mary and Ida Casey of this town. Two brothers, Maurice Noonan of the Fall River Steamboat line, and Kennedy Noonan, now in Australia, survive.

Saturday's Police Court.

In police court Saturday afternoon, the case of John Gleason for carrying on an obnoxious trade, came up for final disposition. The defendant was fined $20. He was represented by counsel W. L. Thompson of Lawrence, and appealed to the superior court.

John Wilder, or otherwise called John Wilder Allison Adderson, a farm hand, pleaded not guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the barn of Addie J. P. Kimball, on Marblehead Street, occupied by Leavitt and Yungbauer. The latter claimed to have been awakened by the barking of his dogs early Thursday morning, and on looking out of the window saw a man passing two of the dogs, afterwards light matches and enter the shed. He at first thought the hired man had returned late, but finding him in bed aroused him and both went to the barn. Before entering the barn he released the third dog, and as he entered the barn door saw a man leave by another door on the opposite side, to whom the dog gave chase and overtook. The two persons soon after came up and caught the man who told them who he was, and that he lived on Railroad Street, and wanted to sleep in the barn. He further requested his captors not to strike him, and to say nothing about the affair, and that Mr. Leavitt, who had been aroused by the scuffle and was looking down from a second story window, who he was. On being released he departed. Neither Yungbauer or his hired man could identify Wilder as the man they caught but he was recognized by Leavitt to whom he was known. The latter heard Wilder say he had wandered there. He did not know what he was there for. He did not think he had been drinking. This was substantially the government's case.

Wilder the defendant, was represented by Attorney W. L. Thompson. His story, in brief, was that on the afternoon prior to the alleged crime he had partaken of whiskey furnished by another farm hand, and the two in the evening had visited various dram shops for which Lawrence is responsible. He remembered returning to Sutton's corner on the electric at 10:30, and thinks he parted company with his chum there. He remembered confusedly of being held by two men but could not say whether they struck him. Did remember of going into the barn. He had no object in going there unless to find a place to sleep. About 3 o'clock in the morning he found himself lying in the grass near the McKinnon coal shed. He went then to the house of a friend on Main Street and was let in. He did not live with his wife on account of trouble. Had lived in town about a year. He had been to the barn four or five different times; three times in the day time. Counsel argued there was not a shadow of evidence upon which to rest the case. The man was undoubtedly stupefied by liquor and wandered on the premises without the least intention of committing a felony, in fact not knowing what he was about. There was no property missing or disturbed. The defendant ought to be discharged. The prejudices and impression of the officers probably accounted for a good deal. Wilder was held in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury, which sits in January.

Differences which have led up to unseemly conduct between the Wardwells and their tenants, the McCloy's, were again aired in court. This time before the McCloy woman appears as the aggrieved party, alleging that she was assaulted Wednesday evening between 7 and 8 o'clock by having red pepper thrown in her eyes by Fred Wardwell, as she was returning from a neighbor's house. The McCloy woman claimed to have recognized her assailant as Wardwell. Mr. McCloy, the husband, claimed to have seen Wardwell and his mother going along the highway between 6 and 7 o'clock, prior to the "peppering." Mrs. McCloy, of whom Mrs. McCloy takes milk testified to certain conversation between Mrs. McCloy and herself relative to Mrs. McCloy having seen a man and woman near the turn of the road whom the McCloy woman thought was the Wardwells. Mrs. McCloy looking in the direction saw no one. Her only other testimony is relative to the condition of the victim after the deed. Ernest Bencker, who trades with the McCloy's claims to have seen Wardwell standing near the corner of his shed after seven o'clock at night. There was no conversation between the two. Bencker only looked up casually. Officer Paul of his own knowledge knew but little of the assault; he saw nothing. Was told by the father.

FRED P. BERRY & CO.,

304 ESSEX STREET, LAWRENCE, MASS.

George Wardwell, that Fred and his mother were in the house. He found a certain paper by the roadside, inside of which were grains of what appeared to be cayenne, and a broken glass jar was found by the roadside. He undertook to peek into the windows of the house but saw into only one room on the lower floor, as newspapers curtailed some of the windows and saw only George Wardwell there. His testimony in no way established any connection between the accused and the assumption which he claimed to have found by the roadside near the four corners. He took a position near a telephone pole to observe matters and to wait for the chief, and he kept on waiting until he concluded there was no likelihood of that individual making his appearance and finally went home.

The defence was a general denial of the allegation. After pleading not guilty to the complaint, Fred Wardwell stated that after assisting his father with the customary chores about the farm and eating supper about 5:30, neither he nor his mother were again out of doors that evening. This statement in substance was corroborated by the mother and father. Mrs. Wardwell stated that about 5 o'clock she and her son retired. Looked out of the window and saw some one standing beneath that did not know who it was. Told Mr. Wardwell and he went out. Did not see the McCloy's or any crowd. The court imposed a fine of $10 upon the young man, who was unrepresented by counsel. He paid.

Greatest Show in the World.

A gentleman who has traveled much, not only abroad but in his own country, as well, is authority for the statement that the show is the greatest given in any amusement resort in the world for the money. Mr. Keith's enterprise is unique and elevating; it is the only place of the kind in the world where a man can take his wife and children with absolute safety; it is educational. Since the opening of the new entrance from Tremont Street and the wonderful "Crystal Tunnel" beneath Mason Street, more people than ever before have visited Boston's famous playhouse. Within the next few weeks some of the most sensational acts that have ever been given in vanderbilt will be seen at Keith's, including a wonderful French horseman, who puts a handsome equine through all the known paces on a platform only 15 feet in diameter, without a railing, and elevated some 20 feet above the stage.
